| As at June 30, 2025 the company reported total inventory balances Tk. 95,024,968 held in Genex registered office. Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value (NRV). The cost is assigned following weighted average cost formula. The measurement and valuation of the inventories are judgmental and complex. There may remain the risk that the NRV could not be determined appropriately. There may also remain any undetected indicator for obsolescence of inventory. Moreover, the nature of the inventories is sophisticated and have significant impact on the operations of the Company. Due to high level of judgment involved and use of some manual process in estimating the valuation and net realizable value of inventories, we considered this to be a key audit matter. | We assessed the appropriateness of management's assumptions applied in calculating the value of the inventory by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Reviewing the recording and valuation process of the inventories;</li> <li>Review the Company's process of inventory count and perform test count;</li> <li>Assessing the appropriateness of the valuation of inventory and performing the recalculation; and</li> <li>Understanding and testing relevant controls within the purchase, measurement and storing process of the inventories.</li> </ul> |

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information in the Annual Report other than the consolidated and separate financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of the auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated and separate financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated and separate financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the consolidated and separate financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated and separate financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), the Companies Act, 1994, the Securities and Exchange Rules, 2020 and other applicable laws and regulation and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated and separate financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated and separate financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group and the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's and the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibility for the audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated and separate financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated and separate financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated and separate financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's and the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated and separate financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated and separate financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated and separate financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the group to express an opinion on the consolidated and separate financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the Group and the Company audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated and separate financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

In accordance with the Companies Act, 1994 and the Securities and Exchange Rules, 2020 and relevant notifications issued by Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission, we also report the following:

- a) We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit and made due verification thereof;
- b) In our opinion, proper books of accounts as required by law have been kept by the group and the company so far as it appeared from our examination of these books;
- c) The consolidated and separate statements of financial position and statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income dealt with by the report are in agreement with the books of accounts; and
- d) The expenditure incurred was for the purposes of the Group's and the Company's business.

IFRS 16 Leases

Nature and effect of changes

The Company applied IFRS 16 using the modified retrospective approach. Accordingly, the comparative information presented for 2020 is not restated - i.e. it is presented, as previously reported, under IAS 17 and related Interpretations. The details of the changes in accounting policies are disclosed below. Additionally, the disclosure requirements in IFRS 16 have not generally been applied to comparative information.

A. Definition of a lease

Previously the Company determined at contract inception whether an arrangement was or contained a lease under IFRIC 4 Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease. The Company now assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition of a lease, as explained in have to change as per accounts.

On transition to IFRS 16, the Company applied IFRS 16 to contracts that were previously identified as leases following the practical expedient approach for existing contracts. Contracts that were not identified as leases under IAS 17 and IFRIC 4 were not reassessed for whether there is a lease under IFRS 16. Therefore, the definition of a lease under IFRS 16 was applied only to contracts entered into or changed on or after 1 July 2019.

B. As a lessee

As a lessee, the Company leases office. The Company previously classified rental of office as operating leases based on its assessment of whether the lease transferred significantly all of the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the underlying asset to the Company. Under IFRS 16, the Company recognizes right-of-use assets (presented as part of property, plant and equipment) and lease liabilities for these leases - i.e. these leases are on-balance sheet where lease liabilities were measured at the present value of the remaining lease payments, discounted at the Company's Incremental borrowing rate as at 1 July 2019. Right-of-use assets are measured at an amount equal to the lease liability, adjusted by the amount of any prepaid or accrued lease payments.

This standard introduces a single, on-balance sheet lease accounting model for leases where a lessee recognizes a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset and a lease liability representing its obligation to make lease payments. There are optional exemptions for short-term leases and leases of low value items.

In addition, the realization loss on capital market investments has decreased relative to last year. These combined factors have contributed to a notably higher NOCFPS in the current year.                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                      |                                   |                                   |                                   |                                   |                 |             |          |             |             |                |   |   |   |   |                                                               |                    |          |                    |                    |  |  |
